Numb. 558.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM AUGUST 16. TO AUGUST 23. 1739.

BY THE HONOURABLE

GEORGE THOMAS, Eſq;

Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex on Delaware.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS His Majeſty by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, has been graciouſly pleaſed to ſignify unto me his Royal Will and Pleaſure, in the Words following, viz.

"GEORGE R.

"TRUSTY AND WELBELOVED, We greet you well. Whereas ſeveral unjuſt Seizures have been made, and Depredations carried on in the Weſt-Indies by Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas, and Ships acting under the Commiſſion of the King of Spain, or his Governors, contrary to the Treaties ſubſiſting between Us and the Crown of Spain, and to the Law of Nations, to the great Prejudice of the lawful Trade and Commerce of Our Subjects; and many Cruelties and Barbarities have been exerciſed on the Perſons of ſuch of our Subjects, whoſe Veſſels have been ſo ſeized by the ſaid Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas. AND whereas frequent Complaint has been made to the Court of Spain of theſe unjuſt Practices, and no Satisfaction or Redreſs been procured: AND whereas a Convention for making Reparation to our Subjects for the Loſſes ſuſtained by them, on Account of the unjuſt Seizures and Captures above-mentioned, was concluded between Us and the King of Spain, on the Fourteenth Day of January laſt, N. S. by which Convention it was ſtipulated, That a certain Sum of Money ſhould be paid at London, within a Term ſpecified in the ſaid Convention, as a Ballance due on the Part of Spain to the Crown and Subjects of Great Britain, which Term did expire on the Twenty-fifth Day of May laſt, and the Payment of the ſaid Sum agreed by the ſaid Convention, has not been made according to the Stipulation for that Purpoſe, by which Means the Convention above-mentioned has been manifeſtly violated and broke by the King of Spain, and our Subjects remain without any Satisfaction or Reparation for the many great and grievous Loſſes ſuſtained by them: WE have thought fit, for the vindicating the Honour of our Crown, and for procuring Reparation and Satisfaction for our injured Subjects, to order Reprizals to be made upon the Crown and Subjects of Spain: AND We do therefore, by Virtue of theſe Preſents, authorize and impower you, to iſſue forth, and grant Commiſſions of Marque and Repriſal, to any of our loving Subjects or others, who ſhall apply to you for the ſame, and whom you ſhall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for arming and fitting out private Ships of War, for the apprehending, ſeizing and taking the Ships, Veſſels and Goods belonging to the King of Spain, his Vaſſals and Subjects, or any inhabiting within his Countries, Territories and Dominions in the Weſt-Indies: PROVIDED always, that before any ſuch Commiſſion or Commiſſions be iſſued forth, Security be given upon every ſuch Commiſſion, as hath been uſed in ſuch Caſes; And you ſhall inſert in every Commiſſion to be ſo granted by you, all ſuch Clauſes, and give ſuch Directions and Inſtructions to the Perſon or Perſons to whom you ſhall grant ſuch Commiſſion, as have been uſual in Caſes of the like Nature; And for ſo doing, this ſhall be your Warrant; And ſo We bid you Farewell. GIVEN at Our Court at Kenſington, the Fifteenth Day of June, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Thirty-nine, in the Thirteenth Year of Our Reign.

"By his MAJESTY's Command,

"HOLLIS NEWCASTLE.

NOW to the End that all his Majeſty's Subjects under my Government, may be upon their Guard, to prevent any Miſchief they might otherwiſe ſuffer from the Spaniards, in Revenge for the Meaſures his Majeſty is obliged to take, to do Himſelf and his Subjects Juſtice, and that they may in their ſeveral Stations annoy the Subjects of Spain, in the beſt Manner they are able, I am commanded to make publick his Majeſty's ſaid Orders. AND it is further his Majeſty's Royal Will and Pleaſure, ſignified to me by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, That no Ammunition or Stores of any Kind whatſoever, be carried to the Spaniards, under Pain of his Majeſty's higheſt Diſpleaſure, and of being rigorouſly and ſeverely proſecuted for the ſame: Of which all Magiſtrates, Officers and others, are to take Notice, and to uſe the moſt effectual Methods for Prevention thereof.

GIVEN under my Hand and the Great Seal of the Province of Pennſylvania, at Philadelphia, the 20th Day of Auguſt, Anno Domini 1739, and in the Thirteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

GEORGE THOMAS.

By Command,
THOMAS LAWRIE, Secretary.

GOD ſave the KING.

PARIS, June 1. O. S.

THE 28th ult. the Earl of Waldegrave, Ambaſſador from the King of Great Britain, had a Conference with the Cardinal de Fleury and the Count de Maurepas, Miniſter and Secretary of State, at the Iſſue of which the Cardinal having repaired to the King's Cloſet, ſtaid longer than uſual with his Majeſty. The Night following the Britiſh Miniſter received a Courier from his Court: It is judged that the Diſpatches he deliver'd to his Excellency muſt be of great Importance, becauſe we obſerve that the Meaſures which were taking for diſbanding ſome of the King's Troops have been ſuſpended ſince the Arrival of that Courier.

LONDON, June 9.

A War is now talk'd on as unavoidable, and moſt of the Spaniſh Merchants are ſaid to have wrote to their Agents and Correſpondents abroad how to act.

And, we hear, that Admiral Haddock's Squadron is to be forthwith re-inforced by twelve Ships of the Line and two Bomb Ketches.

The Rev. Mr. Whitefield, who imbarked on Monday laſt on board the Elizabeth, cannot proceed on his intended Voyage, [on account of the Preſs, the Men being all taken out of that Ship for his Majeſty's Service, ſo that he is to preach on Black-Heath, till the Veſſel is ſupply'd with other Hands.

Letters from Leghorn ſay, that the Maſters of ſeveral Ships lately arrived there report, that the Britiſh Squadron under the Command of Admiral Haddock cruiſes along the Spaniſh Coaſts, and now and then puts into Gibraltar or Port Mahon.

We are well aſſur'd that thirty Sail of Men of War will be put into Commiſſion, part for the Baltick, and the other for the Mediterranean; and we hear that Admiral Haddock has had Orders ſent him to deſtroy, or or make Repriſals of any Spaniſh Ships that he can meet with; and that Mr. Keene, the Britiſh Miniſter at the Court of Madrid, will ſoon be recall'd.

On Wedneſday Afternoon Warrants for impreſſing Seamen being iſſued out with the utmoſt Secrecy, the proper Officers began that Night, and by Yeſterday Morning had preſs'd near 1500 Men, out of Outward bound as well as Homeward bound Ships, taking all they could lay their Hands on; and the Preſs ſtill continnes. Sir Charles Hardy, Captain of the Caroline, attended himſelf, and viſited the Tire of Shipping off the Cuſtom-Houſe Key, and uſed the preſſed Men with the utmoſt Civility.

On Tueſday Night Orders were diſpatch'd to Briſtol, and all the Weſtern Ports, to impreſs all the Men on board any Ships in thoſe Places; ſo that 'tis judg'd ſome Thouſand Seamen, by this Time, are ready to Man the Ships, as ſoon as they are commiſſioned.

We hear that the Guard Ships are order'd to have their full Complement of Men, and that two Lieutenants more will be appointed to each Ship.

We hear that there will be two Encampments of the Army in England, viz. one in the Weſt of England, and the other on Black-heath.

And that 10,000 additional Land Forces will be levied, to be incorporated with the Regiments now ſubſiſting.

We hear Admiral Norris is to have the Command of the Squadron intended to be ſent out. And

'Tis ſaid that an Expreſs has been ſent to Portſmouth, to fit out the Victory (a new Firſt Rate, reckoned the fineſt ever yet built) for Sir John Norris to hoiſt his Flag on Board.

Col. Thomas Paget is, by his Majeſty's Command, gone to Port Mahon; and, we hear, that Brigadier General Anſtruther is to come home.

The following ten Regiments are order'd to be embark'd with all poſſible Expedition from Ireland, viz. Guiſe's, Onſlow's, Blakeney's, Wentworth's, Howard's Bland's, Duccurie's, Cambell's, Hanaſyd's, and Lord James Cavendiſh's. Five of them are to land in North Britain, and five in South Britain.

By a private Letter from Spain we have Advice, that the Flota's ſailing from thence for Buenos Ayres, &c. was ſuſpended for this Year; and that the King had ordered all the Men on board thoſe Ships to be put on board his Men of War, about twenty Sail being now fitting out at Cadiz, and other Ports in Spain; and that they greatly fear that the Galleons will fall into the Hands of Admiral Haddock.

By an Expreſs lately arriv'd, we are inform'd that a Body of 50,000 Ruſſians is march'd through Poland to aſſiſt the Emperor againſt the Turks.

Thurſday Capt. Edward Boſcawen ſet out Poſt for Portſmouth, to ſail immediately in the Shoreham for the Mediterranean and the Weſt-Indies, with Orders to the ſeveral Britiſh Governors in thoſe Seas.

June 14. On Saturday laſt a great Quantity of Gunpowder, and other Warlike Stores, were ſhip'd for the Iſland of Jamaica.

On Saturday laſt his Excellency Horatio Walpole embarks on board the Fubbs Yacht, Capt. Danſie Commander, for Holland.

We hear that this Miniſter is to demand the 6000 Dutch Troops to come over hither in caſe of need.

The Courier ſent hither from Copenhagen, in relation to the Paſſage of the Sound for the French Squadron, was ſome Time ago ſent back to the Court of Denmark, with Orders to Mr. Titley, the Britiſh Miniſter there, to declare, that as his Daniſh Majeſty could not refuſe the Paſſage of this Squadron, without expoſing himſelf to the Reſentment of France, the beſt Way would be to conſent to it: But that his Britanick Majeſty being too much intereſted in the Tranquility of the North, not to hinder, if poſſible, that Squadron from giving it any Diſturbance, was reſolved to ſend another to obſerve that of France, and oppoſe any Thing which that Power may undertake contrary to the Peace of Europe in thoſe Parts.

The Coldneſs between this Court and that of Sweden encreaſes ſo much, that it's ſaid the Duties upon Merchandizes coming from that Kingdom will be augmented; which is not at all unlikely, ſeeing thoſe of England are prohibited there.

Tueſday was held a Board of Admiralty, when the ſeven following Ships of the Line were put into Commiſſion, viz. Namure, Princeſs Carolina, Princeſs of Orange, Superbe, Lyon, Weymouth and Oxford; and the Lieutenants and all other proper Officers were appointed.

The four following Admirals are to have the Command of the intended Squadron now fitting out, viz. Union Flag, Sir John Norris, Vice-Admiral of Great Britain, and Admiral of the Fleet. Red, John Balchen, Eſq; Vice-Admiral. White, Charles Stuart, Eſq; Vice-Admiral. Blue, Philip Cavendiſh, Eſq; Admiral.

All his Majeſtys Yachts, except the Caroline, and William and Mary, are ſailed, in order to impreſs Seamen to Man the Ships put in Commiſſion.

A large Squadron of Men of War is to be ſent to the Baltick under the Command of Sir John Norris.

And a Squadron of Obſervation is to be kept in the Channel, commanded by Admiral Belchen.

His MAJESTY's moſt Gracious SPEECH to both Houſes of Parliament, on Thurſday the 14th Day of June, 1739.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Diſpatch you have given to the publick Buſineſs that has been under your Conſideration, makes it proper to put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, and to give you that Receſs which the Seaſon of the Year requires. You have ſo fully declar'd your Sentiments as well with Regard to the paſt Conduct

Conduct of Spain, as to the Measures that might become neceſſary to be purſued, in Conſequence of any Part which that Court might afterwards take, and enable Me to act in all Events as the Honour and Intereſt of My Crown and Kingdoms ſhall require, that no Inconveniency can ariſe from the immediate Want of further Aſſiſtance during the Receſs of Parliament; and I ſhall ſo entirely rely upon the Aſſurances you have given Me, with ſo much Zeal and Unanimity, and upon your effectually ſupporting Me in following the concurrent Advice of both Houſes of Parliament, that I will not be wanting in My Endeavours to vindicate and maintain our undoubted Rights, and to anſwer the juſt Expectations of my People.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I return you My Thanks for the neceſſary Proviſion you have made for the Service of the current Year, in ſo ample a Manner. The extraordinary Supply which you have granted Me, towards augmenting My Forces both by Sea and Land, is ſuch a Proof of your Affection and Confidence in Me, and of your conſtant Attention to the Service of your Country, that I cannot enough commend this ſeaſonable Care of the Welfare and Safety of the Kingdom.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I am perſwaded it is unneceſſary for Me to recommend to your ſerious Conſideration, the fatal Conſequences that may threaten a Nation divided within itſelf, inflam'd and miſled by all the wicked Arts and Inſinuations that Malice and Falſhood can ſuggeſt: It is too obvious what Advantages our common Enemies wait to take, from the Heats and Animoſities that under groundleſs Pretences are induſtriouſly fomented and ſpread through the Kingdom. Let all who profeſs themſelves zealous Aſſerters of the Rights and Privileges, Laws and Liberties of their Country, and of the Proteſtant Religion under the preſent Eſtabliſhment, unite in the Defence of theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings: Let the Honour, Proſperity and Safety of the Kingdom become one common Cauſe, and reconcile all civil Diſcords and Diviſions, that by your Unanimity you may diſappoint the only Hopes and vain Expectations of our Enemies.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majeſty's Command, ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majeſty's Royal Will and Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the Ninth Day of Auguſt next, to be then held here; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued till that Time.

BOSTON, Aug. 13.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in S. Carolina, to his Friend in Boſton, July 19. 1739.

"I Have no publick Intelligence to communicate, on-
"ly that his Majeſty has preſented us with 75 Pieces
"of Cannon, and other Warlike Stores, juſt arrived,
"under the Convoy of a 20 Gun Ship, to the Value
"of 6000 l. ſterl. An Inſtance of the Importance of "this Province to the Crown of Great Britain.

We hear from Jamaica, that the Negroes who had ſubmitted to the Government, had been out and brought in the reſt of the rebellious Negroes (upwards of 400) upon the ſame Terms that they have ſubmitted.

We hear, that ſome of the Merchants of this Town, intend to fit out ſeveral Veſſels to cruize upon the Spaniards in the Weſt-Indies, and that 3 or 4 Gentlemen are already named for Commanders.

Laſt Friday ſome of Capt. Warren's Officers beat up thro' the Streets of this Town for Voluntaries for the Squirrel, and the Officers of the Tartar impreſs the Sailors out of the inward bound Veſſels for that Ship, which it is ſaid came from Spithead in ſuch a hurry, that ſeveral of the Officers were left on Shore, and the Ship but very poorly manned. 'Tis ſaid ſhe is ſtationed at S. Carolina, for which Place ſhe will ſail in a few Days.

The Squirrel, our ſtation Ship, is fitting out with the utmoſt Diligence, and we hear ſhe will ſail for S. Carolina in Company with the Tartar.

We are told by Gentlemen who came Paſſengers with Capt. Biſhop, that it is the general Opinion at Home, that the French will joyn with the Spaniards in their War with Great Britain.

From the Daily Advertiſer, Saturday, June 9. 1739.
